Hello Miss Pu, Mr.Richard, Mr.Tong, P'Kate, P'Joy, and FTW 13

This week is the 1st 6 weeks of my school and I had a lot of exam! So next week, I'm gonna have my grade report.

Since I've been here, I've been to 2 football games. Everytime we have a game, there is a drum line playing along the hallway. When the drum line comes, every students should go out of the class and follow them! I love everyday that hav a game because my school ends earlier that usual.

Next week is the HOME COMING WEEK of my school!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! For the first day (Monday), I'm gonna wear pajamas to school. Tuesday, the freshmen are gonna dress like servants, sophomores are gonna dress like crowns, juniors are gonna dress like prince and princess, and the seniors are gonna dress like kings and queens. I'm a sophomore so I'm gonna dress like a crown!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Wednesday, students are gonna wear like twins!! But My two friends and I are gonna be a triplet. Thursday is Spirit Day and I think that we are gonna wear school's t-shirt. And on the last day, Friday, is dress-up day and I decided that I'm gonna wear dress!! On Saturday, we have a HOME COMING party!!Wooh-hooo!!!! Actually, I feel so-so about going to this party but my friends really want me to go because I'm gonna be here just one year so I need to go!! And they also told me that they are gonna take me to PROM because they are juniors!!!

Two weeks ago, I went to White Sands with Dream, Nut, my host family, all of the FTW kids of my district, and their host families!! We were really really happy that day!!

One of my best friends here asked me one day if the goals of mine that coming here are so she can help me!!! So I told her that I wanted to speak, write, and reading really English! And you know what! Nowadays, she always improves my Eng. when I speak wrong!! She is a really nice girl!!!!!!!!!!!!!! I've made alot of friends here and they are really nice!!!

Last week, I went to the football game on Thursday and it was really cold although I live in Texas!! So on Friday, I had such a bad cold... But it was really fun because I went there with my two best friends and after the game, I went to Starbuck and we bought a cup of coffee and share it together!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! My friends love Starbuck but I don't really like it because of the price.55555555555555555555

On Thanks giving day, My host family and I are going to go to Mississippi to visit her sister!! And I've already bought the ticket for about $500. I'm so excited!!!

I have to pay luch for only 40 cent at my school everytime I buy food because I'm an exchange student and so does Nut!! Nut and I go to the same school so I meet him everyday. But I always contact with Dream who live in Alamorgodo, New Mexico, as well!!

I'm always happy here and have never felt homesick at all although I miss my family in Thailand!!!

I gotto go now!!!!!!

Hope you all have such a great time!!!

Hi Miss Pu,Mr. Richard, Mr.Tong and all FTW staff

> I got a story about a girl to told u guys. The Girls here are weird! Really. If they like you they not gonna talk to you, I don't really know why they gonna tell theirs friends to talk to you instead of coming to talk to you by themselves unless you already know them. So far i know that they were 3 girls who like me (I wonder why - - ,I'm not really look that good) I know that because my friends got investigated! by those girls that like me, some of my friends say that he got asked about me by 3 different girls and one of those 3 girls i don't ever know her!. Today i went to the football game and i saw 1 of that 3 girls looking at my group at the game i thought that she and her friends were talking about my friends because my friend look better than me lol (sadly but it the truth hahaha) so i didn't care about her. At the last Quarter of the game my friends are leaving first because our teams were losing, after my friend left she still stare at me! and follow me - - and try to make me notice her. One time i look back at her and try to talk to her and she look at me, making a shy face and walk away and i was like what????? (I still don't know why people like me, I can't even find a girls friends in Thailand! lol sadly but it the truth again T_T)

About the foot ball game, It's our home coming game and we lose 20-0 how sad that is?? Ok, enough with the girls story you might not believed it but it the truth. It's getting cold here in Utah like 10 Celsius now. I'm getting ready to play snow boarding now i'm so excited! I just rant my own board today for the whole season for 100$ + a basic lesson. I'm going to try out for the basket ball team and soccer team too and maybe a wresting team too cuz my friend want me to join the wresting team. I got a chance to learn a lot of sport here last week i play American Football and score 2 touchdown in my first game, how amazing is that! But they still didn't let me in the team anyway cuz i was there to slow they already start practice since summer lol (wanna play). The other sad story I wanted to play Ice-Hockey but they don't have a club or a team here that so sad, I play ice-skating and practice with hockey player like every week before i came here and i did not get a chance to play it T_T .

If you were wondering how i'm doing with my study because i never mention about it , the truth is so sad but i have to tell u anyway , I gotAll A in every single class I take with some of them were 100% Yeah!!!!!! I have some study tips for an exchange student next year : Don't be lazy because study here is all about work if u do your homework no matter how bad u did it ,at least you got a B so just do it and it will help u survive even if u don't understand what they want you to do . I don't have any picture to send to you because I don't have a camera. I'm collecting the money to buy one, to take a nice picture of me playing something or doing something to sent it to u . lol it will be all about me hahaha Just kidding! I'll talk to u later bye!!
> P.S Thank for giving me the opportunity to have this very good experience from America and it really a fun place to stay! Thank you very much

Hello

I'm doing well here. You know! Today is 1 month that I've been here. Time pass so fast! I've try many things. I went to play Ice sketting with church activities last Wednesday. First time it's so hard when I walk on the ice, can u imagine. I'm so scared and excited.

I would like to run on the middle of the floor, but it impossible at that time. I begine to walk near the wall. My friend- Nichol holds my hand all the time. Then I feel safety and brave to walk far the wall. I fall down many times, but I never give up. I'm hurt and fun in the sometime. You know why? coz I've someone beside that help me a lot. Every time when I fall down she pull me up, smile and said "It's ok, you are learning to play well, you did a good job at first time. You will play well like other people on the floor soon". That make much more power for me. Sometime we fall down together. We laugh and try again and again. She teach me some trip and it was better and better untill I can run on the floor by my self! We sketting and talking that is a good time for me :D You know I get another lesson from practice to play ice sketting this time. That is exchange student life. I think it's similar thing. I'm so excited and scarriend in the same time. I don't know what will going to my life in the future. I don't know it will hurt me sometime when I get trouble. I just want to find a new experience which different from my life at that time. I hope to be happy and I think it would be fun! After I've been here many things aren't my imagine. I learn how to be strong and be patient It's not easy but I've to ready for a new challenge everyday coz it's my chance. It's both happy and disappointed. I learn to satisfy with them, and then I enjoy about it :)

This week is the last week before break in spring. It's a horrible week too. I've test everyday and I've lot of homework to clear. FIGHT

Academic class. Most of friends in Regular class are from others countries but they speak English. What do you think?

Last three weeks I came over my friend's house and spent all night with them. It was very fun. We did have a fun time together.

I'll go to San Francisco this Saturday with Jenelle, Sun and others exchange student from German. It's gonna be fun. I'm so excited.

My host family is very nice. I have a good time here.

Hi!!! Mrs.Pu , Mr.Tong , Mr.Richard , P'Kate , P'Joy :D

We're Boat and Nutt, we lived in Minnesota (MN). We went to "Morris area high school" together. We have the same class in Biology!, we talked Thai a lot, haha!, because Boat came here after school started 1 week so he didn't know anything, it's so complicated for him, but we promise after this October we'll start talking in English :D anyways, how's things going on in Thailand? You guys doing fine? And how about FTW 13? We're so jealous FTW 13, because we miss the old time that we used to eat "Pa-Yao", and have a very good time together.

About 3 weeks ago we went to Valley Fair, we met all exchange students that got Host Families here in MN :D .It's so fun in Valley Fair, we think you guys already got a picture from Title, we didn't have so much picture coz that day was rain, and this end of October we'll have Halloween party :) it's so glad we'll meet each other again!, and next year we have a New York and Washington trip! We're so excited!!! and maybe Hawaii trip too!! don't be jealous to us, we'll take a photo for u.

From Toong

Hi Mrs. Pu, P' Kate, Mr. Tong, Mr. Richard and FTW 13.

How all of you in there, In here i'm so happy with a lot of things. But the temperature's so cold (about 2c now 0). First time that I'm arrival in U.S. I think, I've to cry same as my sister (TUM 55+). But i'm not, because in here I've a lot of things to do with my friend & my host family. I don't have any homesick or missing home at all. Today is 1 month and half that I've to live in U.S (Minnesota). In 2 weeks ago my school has a homecoming party. It's very fun and excited, because all of exchange student have to dance in a front of everybody. Oh and in 3-4 weeks ago all of exchange student (in MN) have to go to Valley Fairs. I'm going with nut (nuttanicha), boat, plam, title, and nest.

I think, Title have to send a photo to you already. It's so fun, excited and a few of scared 5 5+. And I want to tell you about first day that I've to go to school. I'm very excited, because when I'm open the door all of kids look at me and smile to me. I'm so glad and happy. Because first time I think, it's so hard to find some friend. But it's not. In first day at school I've a friend about 20 kids in one day. And my class is going well now. In first day in a class. I can understand some of them. But you know, it's not hard if you have to try. In a first test of America history, I'm failed. But this time is second time that I've to do it. Yeah it's better; I got B on this test. And I want to tell all of FTW13. You don't worry about a education in U.S. It's not hard if you're trying. And in my English class (Speech). I hate this class so much 5 5 5+. It's so hard you know. Right now I've to speech very week. And I can do it's so well.

In speech class, I think it's hard on a first that you have to speak in a front of class. Because you'll have many feeling like scared, nervous, excited, fun, and sometime you'll crazy 5 5+.

I think, Right now I love this class. I want to tell you FTW13, if you've a chance you should to go to this class. Because it's give you a many experience in your class in here. And you'll be brave to speak and do something in a front of class. I have a lot of thing to tell you, But I don't have a much time to write it. So I have to talk to you later.

Take care and miss you all Toong :)
